SushiDaily: salmon nigiri

The iconic classic of the sushi world. Simple, classic, elegant. You'll find Nigiri on the menu at sushi establishments the world-over. Never outplayed or overdone, you can't have too much of a good thing. Nigiri is a traditional type of sushi combining sticky sushi rice, moulded by hand, with a slice of fish or vegetable on the top.

SushiDaily: salmon sashimi

What is sashimi? Well, first of all it isn't strictly sushi. Sashimi is actually a raw fish that is traditionally sliced into the pieces – nothing else. But don't let it's simplicity fool you, not only do people believe it has great benefits, it's freshness also gives it a unique taste that'll work great with soy sauce.
